Our Childcare guide

Childcare

Holidays are precious, we want you to be able to relax and have some time for yourselves, as well as time together as a family.

If you're looking into arranging some childcare during your stay, the below information should be useful.

When should I book my childcare?

Whilst there are several companies operating in Meribel, childcare is frequently in high demand, so the earlier you book the better!

If you are travelling during a peak week (Christmas, New Year, half-term, Easter) then booking early is particularly important.

Do I have to book full days for the whole week?

Not necessarily. Information on individual companies can be found below. Some companies offer a flexible package or can offer just mornings/afternoons.

If you are travelling during a peak week (Christmas, New Year, half-term, Easter), you will probably be required to book the full week.

What if I just want some baby-sitting during the staff night off?

No problem. Any of the companies below (apart from ESF) will be able to arrange a babysitting for you, just contact them directly.

Will the nanny ski with the children?

No, nannies will happily drop off/collect your children to and from ski school but they will focus on other activities when looking after your children.

What activities do childcare companies usually do with the children?

If you have requests, companies will look to accommodate them, however in general activities may include; sledging, snowman building, bus rides to parks and inside activities (painting, drawing, board games, puzzles etc.).

Will the nanny come to the chalet?

Yes, with the exception of ESF Club Piou Piou and Les Saturins, the nannies will come to your chalet and take care of your children from there. You can speak to the childcare company about the arrangements and they will accommodate you.

Will the nanny feed my child during the day?

The short answer is yes. However, each company works differently and may require extra money for lunches/snacks throughout the day. It's best to discuss this directly with the childcare company.

Childcare FAQ (continued)

Will my child get to play with other children?

If you decide to use the ESF Club Piou Piou or Les Saturins then your child will be with other children.

If you decide to go with a private nanny you can discuss this with them, but generally if there are other children of a similar age with other nannies, they are often happy to meet up during the day to run joint activities.

How many nannies do I need?

This depends on the number of children you have and their ages, and it varies between the companies. Details for specific companies can be found below.

Which company should I use?

The company you decide to use will depend on your own preferences, requirements and their availability.

Can Ski Basics provide cots and highchairs?

Yes - just let us know before your arrival and this can be arranged for you.

Below is information on each childcare company along with their contact details.
